

Wojcik Will Be Deputy Sheriff For Quad-Cities

Appointment of Stanley Wojcik, 50, of 925 Greenwood street, Madison, as day deputy sheriff assigned to the Quad-Cities effective tomorrow, was announced this week by Sheriff Barney Fraundorf.

Wojcik, former Madison police chief, is a 22-year veteran of the Madison police department and held the rank of captain before being named chief Dec. 1, 1962, when Fraundorf, who also was Madison chief, took office as sheriff. He was fired from the Madison department in 1961 on a charge of insubordination for meeting with Sheriff Fraundorf, then naming an acting chief without the mayor's consent and refusing to participate in elections, he explained.

Sheriff Fraundorf said today, "Wojcik is a young, gallant, very much in law enforcement, by Wojcik taking employment with the sheriff's office. He is capable, honest, very qualified and with his long record in law enforcement will make a good addition to the office."

Wojcik is married and has one child. He is single, 26, a teacher at Granite City high school, and Sandra, 22, employed at the county recorder of deed's office.

Express Routes Start in May

new express routes, financed under a federal grant for one year, will be in operation about the middle of May. Two of them, high-speed express runs, will originate in the Quad-Cities and will accommodate riders either to downtown Granite City or downtown St. Louis.

At a meeting of the Housing and Home Finance Agency for a mass transportation demonstration grant was ratified. Among other things, it included a study of Bi-State's monthly pass program, the only one in the nation, under which for $12 a month, a rider can cross the 3900 last fall to 10,000.

At the request of the city of Belleville, a free one-way bus service was approved for school children in connection with a one-day sesquicentennial celebration, during which all stores and offices will be closed. The cost of pocket cost was estimated at $800, but it was pointed out that the fare will be charged on the return trip from the celebration grounds.

Bi-State commissioners emphasized the sesquicentennial nature of the celebration, as well as revenue from return trip fares in granting the city's request.

Surplus Property Disposal

Disposal of surplus property resulting from discontinuance of two street car lines in St. Louis, together with real estate long since released, was authorized by the agency. Some foreign countries are interested in the 80 street cars, Baine said.

This property, along with 66 obsolete buses, will be sold at the highest bid price. No estimate was available as to what it would bring.

Unanimous approval was given to the East-West Gateway Land Use Transportation Study, which was originated recently by a joint Illinois-Missouri committee representing major governmental units in the bi-state area.

The Federal Bureau of Roads has described the study as "extremely important" in other metropolitan regions. A continuing process of coordinated regional planning is mandatory by July 1, 1965, if the Quad-Cities and other areas of this metropolitan area want to be eligible for federal highway funds.

Bi-State authorized letters to the seven Illinois and seven Missouri governmental units, all of which participated in the preliminary outline, inviting them to nominate officials representing to continue the study and set up a permanent organization, as required by federal law. In addition to Bi-State Agency, the regional coordinating committee would represent the Madison County Board of Supervisors, St. Clair County Board of Supervisors, city of East St. Louis, Monroe County Board of Commissioners, Illinois Division of Highways, Southwest Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Council, Southeast Illinois Council of Mayors, St. Louis County Municipal League, Missouri State Division of Commerce, Missouri Department, Missouri State Highway Commission, St. Charles County, Jefferson County, St. Louis County, and city of St. Louis.

Executive Director Reports

Col. E. Smyser Jr., Bi-State executive director, reported the recent high storm caused $10,000 damage at the Granite City wharf, all covered by insurance.

Last year's revenue from the public docks was $827,000 and this will climb to $212,000 in 1964 due to the just-completed expansion of facilities there.

Completion of the East St. Louis Gateway Arch is expected to run several months behind the July 1, 1965, deadline, he continued.

This also will delay opening of the $10-million, $35-million $35-million Bi-State project which will carry sightseers to the top of the 630-foot monument. While loss of tourism is a definite loss, it is not a particularly serious financial problem is anticipated.

Contracts for the second phase of the Interstate Air Pollution Study, which Bi-State currently is participating will be signed May 14, Smyser announced. This study includes the Quad-Cities and should pin-point air pollution sources, as well as type and volume.

Former application for $1,037,000 federal aid to re-open Parks Avenue in St. Louis was approved. It was emphasized that there is no commitment on Bi-State; the application is primarily to assure earmarking of the funds for the second year of the federal government's fiscal year June 30.

The state of Illinois also has pledged $200,000 toward reactivating the airport, Col. Smyser said, and both grants will be utilized, along with a Bi-State revenue bond to open the airport. Prospect of this happening, he said, is brighter than ever.

Announcement was made of the re-election of Charles M. Roos, Belleville, original member of Bi-State, due to failing health. A resolution of appreciation for his 15 years service as commissioner, chairman and d

Born in the cathedral city of Rheims in the province of Champagne, Entremont is a product of French teaching and training.

Landolt Re-elected

Chairman For '64
County Board

Harold Landolt, Alhambra supervisor, was re-elected to his second term as chairman of the Marion county board of supervisors yesterday at a meeting in Edwardsburg. There was no opposition.

He selected a "rough year ahead" financially for the county which he said is faced with new costs under the new judicial system, other expenses and its low general purpose tax fund rate.

"We will have to watch our spending very carefully," he said. "But with good cooperation and continued consideration on the part of board members, we will get through this year in fairly good shape."

Landolt was nominated by Joseph Troeckler, Chouteau township supervisor, and Leslie Prehn of Wood River township served as chairman during the reorganization session.

Landolt said the county "was an old-timer" and the new board will make the county better.

He presented Landolt with a leather attache case in behalf of county offices and members for his work during his first year as chairman.

The board adopted a few rules changes on the motion of the rules committee. The number of standing committees was reduced from 23 to 24 by combining the rules committee with the judicial committee. Increased to 10 were standing committees, county officers and investigation and license committees.

The county home committee in the future will recommend the appointment of the superintendent of the county home to the county board.

The starting time for the county board meeting was changed from 10 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. generally on the third Wednesday of the month, with the next set for May 20.

An honest government of law—providing democratic freedom for the people—is the most difficult kind of government both to establish and maintain.

Freedom endures only when the people know what freedom is and are determined to preserve it. (C) Freedoms Crusade.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

MAY 1, 1914

A sensational journalist looking for a "sob" story would say that it was due to the disgrace of Dick, an employee in the Granite City fire department, by a motor truck. A more conservative writer might say that it was merely fate.

It was a fact that the second and third of the $150 team of beautiful black fire horses entered the great beyond Wednesday. His untimely demise came after a night of suffering. He had lost one of his forelegs and three ribs in falling in his stall, and was shot.

"Doc" was deceased in death a year ago by Dick. The team was a beloved hand in the area, and was the pride of the fire department. Its purchase price was paid by Dr. R. W. Bunting and was regarded by the firemen as a great gift. Specimens they were, their coats shiny and their height and weight the envy of horsemen.

After a long absence from the community, to keep abreast of the times, $850 was spent for a Waukesha nine-ton firefighting machine propelled by a six-cylinder engine and capable of throwing water.

That ended the regime of Dick

Kenneth Fijan and Nadine Little top the current honor roll containing 150 Community members. Each has five "A" grades and one "B" grade. Close behind are Gregor Sido and Wanda Mae Bacon, who had all "A" grades but carried only five subjects, one less than Fijan and Miss Little. *

Adolph Schermer of Granite City was elected vice-president of the Southern Illinois Council of the B'nai B'rith when the organization met yesterday at the Broadview hotel. *

Sid Katz, James H. Adamson and Leonard Altman were appointed by the Associated Retailers at a meeting of the Retailers' Association a committee to promote special events of a civic nature. *

Miss Lois Reber, a senior student at Community high school and one of the five girls nominated for May Queen, was notified that she had been chosen to be the new queen this year.

The notification was in the form of a basket of flowers sent to the school office. That day Mrs. Talies was written to from Mrs. Mary Dittman, Mrs. Nedra Petri, Mrs. Florence and Mrs. Sternberg, all of Granite City.

Mrs. W. J. Heavner entered the Senior Class at the University of Illinois on Thursday evening and awarded prizes in pinwheel to Mrs. Wheeler. Talies were written to from Mrs. Mary Dittman, Mrs. Nedra Petri, Mrs. Florence and Mrs. Sternberg, all of Granite City.

The TAP club party was held Thursday in the home of Mrs. Mayes Taylor. Mrs. Charles Thurber and Mrs. Thomas Smith excelled and received favors. Mrs. William Harry Namekoff was the only girl present. The next meeting will be held in a fortnight, and Mrs. Fred Schuman will entertain the group. *

THOUGHTS OF WORKER AFTER BEING RESCUED

To the Editor:

I have written many letters, some of interest and others, some not. In writing this one, I would like to say thanks to Henry Hellrich of the Utilities Department at Granite City Steel Co. in Granite City, Ill. He is a true public servant.

There are others whose names I don't know, such as the nurses and Dr. Kahn.

I remember Henry Hellrich of the state of Illinois and to

Ed Christ, because they were with me when I was overcome by gas, and they pulled me out.

They administered artificial respiration.

These people saved my life. I am sure to know we have these people living in our town.

Mr. Hellrich didn't think of the clean suit he had on. Mr. Christ didn't think of the danger of crawling into the same hole I had in to help raise me out.

I think these people are something special and again I say thanks.

Electron Showed Most Granite Cityans Favor Fluoridation

Latest revival of the water fluoridation issue in the city council recalls the decisive April 1961 mandate of Granite City voters.

Unhappy constituents, consigned to the water department, where their duty was to haul dirt from the streets over which they had pulled the fire equipment many and Doc. They were relegated to a little stable across the alley from the Waukesha Waterworks, where they could hear the clang of its bell and the screech of its Claxon horn.

After a short term on the chain gang, Dick contracted pneumonia and died. That was not even a year ago for the inmates, but little figure in this commercial age of 1914, but it would have seemed perfectly natural had Dick been sent to some kindly farmer after a sufficient service, instead of putting them on street work.

Now remains for Gold Head, the most recent addition to the horses which have drawn local firefighting apparatus. Old Gold Head was relegated to the street department when Doc and Dick were still alive.

He has doggedly refused to die.

Instead, he not only consents to being hitched to a small cart, but also agrees with local mechanics to haul him in a large wagon, with a mate as his running mate.

Although disputed by some persons due to various motivations, fluoridation facts have been conclusively proven by the experience in St. Louis, Chicago and many other cities throughout the nation. Presence in drinking water of one part per million of fluoride dependable and safely eliminates more than one-half of future tooth decay, bringing huge savings in terms of needless pain and expense.

Not merely a majority but 100% of the recognized national health, medical and dental authorities have recommended and continue to recommend water fluoridation.

Few, if any, issues can win the endorsement of such a large and widespread constituency as the question of fluoridation. The 7085 Granite Cityans casting "Yes" ballots for a victory margin of 1448, aldermen who cast "No" votes are posing as superior to their constituents in intellect and knowledge of the issue, saying in effect that they know what is best regardless of the expressed wishes of the electorate.

Because of the nature of democracy—because freedom is dependent on high national standards of character and conduct—Quad-Cityans and Americans everywhere are as deeply involved in 1964 as their forefathers were in 1776.

Stating basic truths in simple terms, the weekly editorials insist that what needs to be voiced in this day and age. They will have accomplished their purpose if they help stimulate the discussion and action needed to curb current erosions of freedom.

Meaning of Freedom

Topic Of New Series

Under the heading of "Freedom's Meaning," a series of capsule comments on freedom begins today on this page. The "Freedomettes" are the 1964-65 phase of the Freedoms, a magazine which was started in 1962 to reflect aspects of freedom—its obligations and its hazards.

Major Expansion At Birthplace Of Laclede Steel Company

Expansion of the 53-year-old Laclede Steel Co. plant here is good news not only for the Quad-Cities but for the nation generally, which has benefited from a big volume and variety of quality steel products from Laclede through the years. Even greater selection and quantity of products are being made possible by the current enlargement of the Madison mill.

As shown in a page of pictures in the last issue of the Press-Record, the spacious local plant now includes room for a fifth steel joist production line—a new facility that will make unusually long joists beginning this summer—and also a possible sixth line.

Relief will be a stronger competitive position, further improving prospects of maintaining operations on a comparatively "even keel" from season to season and from year to year.

With Laclede Steel, founded here by the late Thomas R. Akin in 1911, considering even more expansion, it is not surprising that the company is hopeful that the company's original location will receive thorough consideration as the site. The firm has reached national proportions, with plants as far away as Texas and Florida, but we suspect that its birthplace, Madison, still has a special place in the hearts of Laclede officials.

Observe The Law Theme Of Current Law Day Observance

"Observe the law—key to order, justice, freedom" is an appropriate theme for the seventh annual observance of Law Day, U.S.A., tomorrow. The law is both the foundation stone and cornerstone of our form of government.

Executive, legislative and judicial governmental branches and the public at large must adhere to rule by law; no one is above it. It is the structure of laws that makes all else in this nation possible.

As Quad-Cityans observe Law Day on Friday, emphasis will be placed on making the law meaningful and adults their heritage of individual liberty under law; fostering increased respect for law and the courts as guardian of the rights of all citizens; and encouraging understanding of basic values of the rule of law in the United States, as contrasted with the rule of force and fear under communism.

The 1964 Law Day theme underscores the fact that the law must rule supreme, not ignoring the needs of individuals but not permitting anyone in either high or low positions to ignore it.

Law Day challenges all Americans to rededicate themselves to the principles which have made this nation great. Each man, woman and child is urged to respect and obey the law and to support and defend the institutions that administer it.

Friendly Animals Deadly When Infected By Rabies

Current dog inoculation campaigns direct public attention to rabies, which remains a serious threat because it invariably is fatal once its symptoms appear in a human being. The deadly virus attacks a person's central nervous system.

The illness is transmitted to people not only by pets and by stray dogs and cats but also by wild animals in state parks and elsewhere. Squirrels, skunks and rats are examples of potential carriers of rabies.

No one in Illinois has died of rabies since 1954, but hundreds annually undergo the painful series of Pasteur treatments because of bites inflicted by animals either rabid or only rabid. Those treated so far in year 1960, 1960, compared to 1959, a similar year a year ago.

That 1964 may be a particularly dangerous year is further shown by the fact that 76 animals were found to have had rabies in tests conducted in the first three months, exactly double the number in the first quarter of 1963.

The Illinois Health Department warns against the apparent friendliness of infected animals that is so very dangerous. It is a rabid animal that is a real threat to you," Dr. Norman Rose of the Preventive Medicine Division points out. Pets pose a special problem because they are normally friendly—but just as much a menace if they contract rabies.

In the first quarter of 1964, 100 animals were found to have rabies. The size of the rabid animal is not important, but the size of the animal that is rabid is important.

In Communist countries, May is observed with a display of strength. The Communists are the ones who are most likely to defend and discredit democracy. Under Communism, they are no longer as we know it—ruling the spreading tentacles of Communism, Americans must do more than give lip service to the law—they must be the concern of each citizen in his day-to-day life.

This will suppress the most elementary human values and robs the individual of his inherent dignity and worth.

The Communist attitude should be contrasted with the principles advanced by Law Day, U.S.A. The whole strength of America lies in its laws which guarantee every citizen freedom from tyranny.

Our laws are based upon the concepts of justice and equality which are embodied in our Constitution. They are expressions of the will of the people.

LAW IS THE BEDROCK underlying our form of government and our whole social order, a Tri-City Bar Association spokesman said today in commenting on tomorrow's nationwide observance of Law Day, U.S.A. The law has been a cohesive and dynamic force in maintaining life and the ideals of each of us individuals. Preserving and strengthening the rule of law is vital to the future of the United States. Law Day is a day of rededication to the ideals of freedom and justice—a day for cultivation of that respect for law which is so vital to a free, democratic way of life.

Responsibilities of each citizen include:

The duty to obey the laws.

The duty to respect the rights of others.

The duty to inform your self on issues of government and community welfare.

The duty to vote in elections.

The duty to serve on juries if called.

The duty to serve and defend your country in time of war.

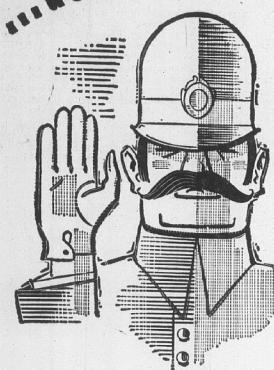

The duty to assist agencies of national and international economic opportunity.

How's your legal health?

Give yourself this simple test

1. Is your will up to date?

Changes in state laws, in federal statutes, in your family relationships, in Treasury Regulations, in court decisions, in your financial status and in inheritance taxation may have materially altered the results which you sought to attain by your will. Have you reviewed your will with your lawyer lately?

2. Are your records adequate?

Income taxes, estate taxes, real estate taxes, inheritance taxes all may be affected by the records which you keep with respect to your financial transactions and your property ownership. Your lawyer can set you straight.

3. Is your ownership of real estate clear and complete?

Your title insurance policy, leases affecting your property, the rights of others to your real estate, and improvement contracts relative to your real estate may require the examination and suggestions of your lawyer.

4. How do you hold title to your real and personal property?

In joint tenancy with your wife? In your wife's name? As a tenant in common? In your own name? In a land trust? Each of these methods of holding title may have a different effect on your tax status and on your ownership. Your lawyer can advise you as to the best method of property ownership for your particular situation.

5. Are you a participant in a retirement plan?

Or a pension plan; a profit sharing plan? How do you stand with respect to Social Security? Your lawyer can suggest how best to set

6. Are there new federal, state or municipal laws or ordinances which affect you?

Your lawyer can bring you up to date and can instruct you on how to obtain maximum advantages or to diminish liabilities.

7. Have there been changes in the amounts, nature or availability of any of your assets or property?

Your lawyer can counsel you on how best to adjust to the new situation—and to make the most out of what you have.

8. Do you carry on business through the type of legal organization most advantageous to you?

Do you operate through a partnership, a corporation, sole ownership or a trust? Your lawyer can recommend the best method for your particular situation.

FIGHT AGAINST INSECTS

Since the beginning of record history, man has never succeeded in getting rid of a single species of insect. There are many species of insects that inhabit the earth. With spring insects' eternal struggle against insects begins anew.

Grubs, beetles and crickets overwintered underground in the egg stage. Many of the beetles passed the winter in a larval or grub form beneath the bark of trees, such as the birch and spruce. They have been staying within the stem of the plant. Aphids and many of the scales, except those that hibernate, are eggs in the buds and other plant parts. Cutworms (the adult is a moth) overwinter as worms or caterpillars in the soil under the bark of trees such as the balsam spruce trees. They spin silken cocoons as protection from the howling blasts of winter.

Other moths, such as the eastern tent caterpillar, gypsy moth and the tent caterpillar, soon emerge from egg masses, attached to small twigs. The well-known monarch butterfly is the most numerous insect in the north for the winter. Many of the bugs such as the squash and chinook bug, and several of the leafhoppers, pass the winter in the soil or fall into the mulch to huddle away under litter. One of the insects that passes the winter in style is the box elder bug.

These insects have been found in houses of humans who failed to heed the information passed along last fall by the agriculture department on "how to get rid of box elder bugs."

The Illinois State Police has reminded motorists that legislation enacted by the 73rd General Assembly requires drivers to drive on Illinois highways and roads with only parking lights turned on.

From the period from sunset to sunrise motorists must display their headlights." William H. Morris, superintendent of the state police, said, "The new law makes mandatory to display headlights when fog, smoke, or inclement weather indicates such usage."

State troopers have been issuing warning tickets to violators. "Arrest tickets will be forthcoming if motorists continue to ignore the new law," Morris said.

Named To Honorary

David Neil Toti, 2616 East 28th street, is among 114 members to be initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, the honorary society for men for freshmen men, at the University of Illinois. Qualifications are a B-plus grade average for the first semester or first year.

Many areas of the world today the principle of individual freedom and equality is being challenged. Our nation is committed to a role of leadership in meeting that challenge and in preserving the values of our free society.

The system of representative government under which we live, with its ideals of equal justice, equal opportunity, and protection of the rights of all citizens, is based upon a body of laws of our own making and interpreted by independent courts.

The system depends for vitality and strength upon broad citizen participation in a universal franchise.

This includes voluntary compliance with the rule of law and an informed awareness of the responsibilities of citizenship.

It is apparent, therefore, that the bill of Congress and by official proclamation of the President of the United States, a special day has been set aside when the American people are asked to give thoughtful attention to the place of law in our lives. This nationwide observance, known as Law Day USA, will take place on May 1.

We, the members of the Quad Cities do hereby join in proclaiming Friday, May 1, 1964, as Law Day USA, and call upon all citizens, organizations, schools, and churches to recognize this special day and to join in its observance.

FARMERS ALERTED FOR 'FERTILITY' QUACKS

Evidently the fertility quacks consider Illinois to be prime territory for their operations. The money we have to pay for fertilizer is the number one state in farm use of plant nutrients and for good reason. We have two unusually favorable crop years in 1963 and 1964.

But you have offered one of the miracle products this year. Usually the salesman is a persistent tattler, but you have great success in selling your product.

He looks upon farmers as easy prey. Here are some of the ways to spot the fertility quack:

He claims mysterious benefits from conditioning the soil with lamb's quarters, or lamb's quarters, or lamb's quarters, or lamb's quarters.

He makes no guarantee for nitrogen, phosphorus or potassium and thus avoids regulations.

He claims the fertilizer does more good than any other fertilizer.

Sometimes the benefits claimed are from micronutrients (trace elements), but the micronutrient content is often not guaranteed.

OPEN EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHT

YESTERDAY. As a student at Cape Girardeau (Mo.) State College in 1920, Miss Tanzberger (front center) poses with classmates from St. Louis county.

Career Spans Half-Century

Miss Tanzberger To End
43 1/2 Years At Washington

Along West 20th street, directly across from the bustle and clamor of bright red tank cars on the Union Starch & Refining Co. yards, Washington school stands quiet and dignified.

Upstairs in a second-floor room of this 62-year-old, but well-kept building, Miss Florence Tanzberger presides over her fifth-grade class in spite of the same name.

And if, on these balmy spring days at Washington school, Miss Tanzberger looks upon her pupils with a little extra fondness, it would be only natural. For this is to be Miss Tanzberger's last regular class.

On June 5, she will carry her green book for the last time, her pension book for the last time, and 40 years at Washington school. She has reached the mandatory retirement age.

Miss Tanzberger's teaching career began almost 50 years ago when she started a 5th-year stint in St. Louis county. She resigned to further her education and eventually taught at Girardeau (Mo.) State College in January 1921. It was then she came to Washington school.

"The time has gone by so fast," she told the Press-Record this week. "It's hard to realize."

Geometry 30 Years

She first taught the sixth grade and when the school system began the plan of system in September 1921, she taught spelling for five years, then geography for 30 years. When the system ended at the school, she taught geometry for 30 years as assigned to the fifth grade.

Miss Tanzberger said she enjoyed her career immensely.

Johnson has requested that all residents who want to participate in the cleanup to meet at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at Booket's on Harrison streets ready for work.

Girl Treated for Scratch

Pamela Tester, three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tester, 408 West Avenue, were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 7 p.m. Monday for a dog bite or scratch across the left cheek. She was released.

trips—I've made so many long ones," she said. "And I hope to do some substitute teaching."

"I'm looking forward to that," she said. "I'm probably the only teacher to earn another degree and get a check in pay at the same time."

She said that in 1938 the depression caused the school term to be cut by a month and all salaries were sliced by $675.

"During the years we received calls from all teachers requesting vouchers which we had to hold until there was enough money to cash them," she said.

Over the years, Miss Tanzberger's steady and gifted hand guided thousands of respectful pupils. Among them were Willis Snyder, her grandfather, and Carl Snyder, the father of Nancy Snyder, who is a member of the teacher's present class.

"I've taught many of their parents," she said. "Miss Tanzberger was always surveying her class with perhaps a thought flickering back to 1925 or 1933."

All three pupils of the past and present and all who have been associated with Miss Tanzberger have been invited to a PTA meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 11, at Booket's home.

What will she do after retirement? "I'm planning some short trips," she said.

K. of C. May Day Fete Set Sunday at Highland

The annual May Day parade and services sponsored by the Madison county chapter of the Knights of Columbus will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at Highland.

Members of the Tri-Cities K. of C. council, fourth degree members, and its Columbian Squires are scheduled to participate with K. of C.'s to march in the "Our Rosary" segments of the parade.

The parade route will be limited with outdoor services set up in the St. Paul's high school campus. The rosary Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and a sermon will be featured. The parade is held annually in the county in honor of the mother of God, "Queen of Peace," and constitutes a prayer for peace.

The county chapter also invited the public to attend its annual county spelling bee set for 8 p.m. today at the Marion R. of C. hall. Two spellers will represent the local council.

Madison Sets Rabies Inoculations Saturday

Inoculations against rabies for small animals will be given from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at the Madison street department garage on Third street, according to city officials.

Leinenkugel, veterinarian, will be in charge of the program which will be held May 16 in Madison, 100 N. 9th in Veterans Park.

The dollar per animal is 50¢ for Madison and Venice residents and $2.50 for non-residents.

Eagle Park to Conduct Clean-up Program

There will be a general cleanup program Saturday in Eagle Park Acres, according to Cleveland Johnson, president of the Eagle Park Acres Improvement Association.

Johnson has requested that all residents who want to participate in the cleanup to meet at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at Booket's on Harrison streets ready for work.

Sinclair Avenue To Be Identified

"Where's Sinclair avenue?" was a question posed by several aldermen during Monday night's Granite City council session, when Alderman Earl Thompson asked for a street sign to be placed at the intersection with Circle drive.

"That's what I've been hearing," said Alderman Fred the corner. "People want to go to Sinclair avenue and they can't find it. They're always directed to St. Clair avenue."

He explained it extends northeast off Circle drive in North Granite. Several maps were brought out by other aldermen, none of them found the street, but that it was labeled Sinclair avenue. "And we have a G.I. Joe in the Circle Park," several commented. Newer maps show the proper name.

Monthly Chamber Board Meeting Next Thursday

Education, tourism promotion and civic improvement and development will be among the topics of the May dinner meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors at 6 p.m. Tuesday, May 5, at the Rose Bowl.

President Chester L. Baker said the chamber's monthly agenda also will include reports on Congressional action, housing, industrial development, membership, new nations, planning and zoning, membership relations and the annual Chamber Play Day program.

Practice Teaching

Ernest Granata and Shirley Sisk of Granite City are among the Southern Illinois students of education in Carbondale who are engaged in student teaching in Illinois schools. Dr. Ernest Granata is teaching at West Frankfort high school and Miss Sisk is teaching at the Brush school in Carbondale, by Rev. Antonoff.

The Eastern Orthodox observance is being observed by the two priests as follows:

"In cathedral towns, the Bishop washes the feet of 12 priests. In the evening, the priest reads the 12 Passions of Christ, commenting on the 12 teachings of Christ. He performs trial and crucifixion, death. On Holy and Great Friday, the church commemorates the death and burial of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ."

"In the morning, the Royal Hours are read, followed in the afternoon by the service of the taking down of the Crucified Christ from the Cross. In the evening the Lamentations with the triple procession with the burial of Christ."

"On Holy and Great Saturday, the church remembers the descent of Christ into Hades where He preached His Gospel to the dead, selected 12 captives who died before His coming."

"This Great and Holy Sabbath is the day which connects Good Friday, the day of the Cross, with the Day of His Resurrection."

Council Rejects Zone Code Change for Car Wash Shops

An amendment to the city's zoning code to include automatic car wash businesses in the C-1 commercial property at Pontoon road and Franklin avenue—2161 Pontoon road, near a corner, was rejected Monday night and was rejected by Granite City council members.

The proposal was made by Sixth Ward Alderman Casimir Thompson who said the automatic car washes would employ no more than three persons and more than three persons would be in the same classification as service stations.

An objection was raised by Alderman Donald Partney, chairman of the Zoning and Planning committee, who said the committee is studying a proposal to update the city's master growth plan and that changes in the zoning code would be taken up at the same time with professional guidance.

Further study also is to be given to the proposal to increase the size of the board from three to five members.

Mayor Davis explained it has been difficult to get a quorum at the meetings.

The Finance committee, headed by Alderman Paul Rutledge, recommended to the city council that it authorize to the State Transit System, from 11:15 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. His request for the mayor to write a letter to the transit system asking for restoration of the 11:15 p.m. bus was approved.
